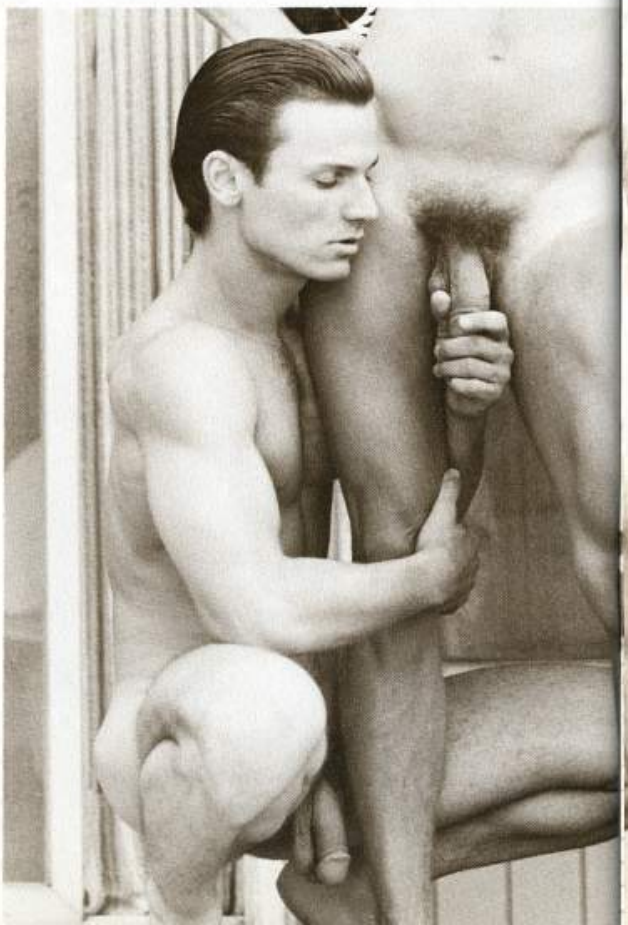
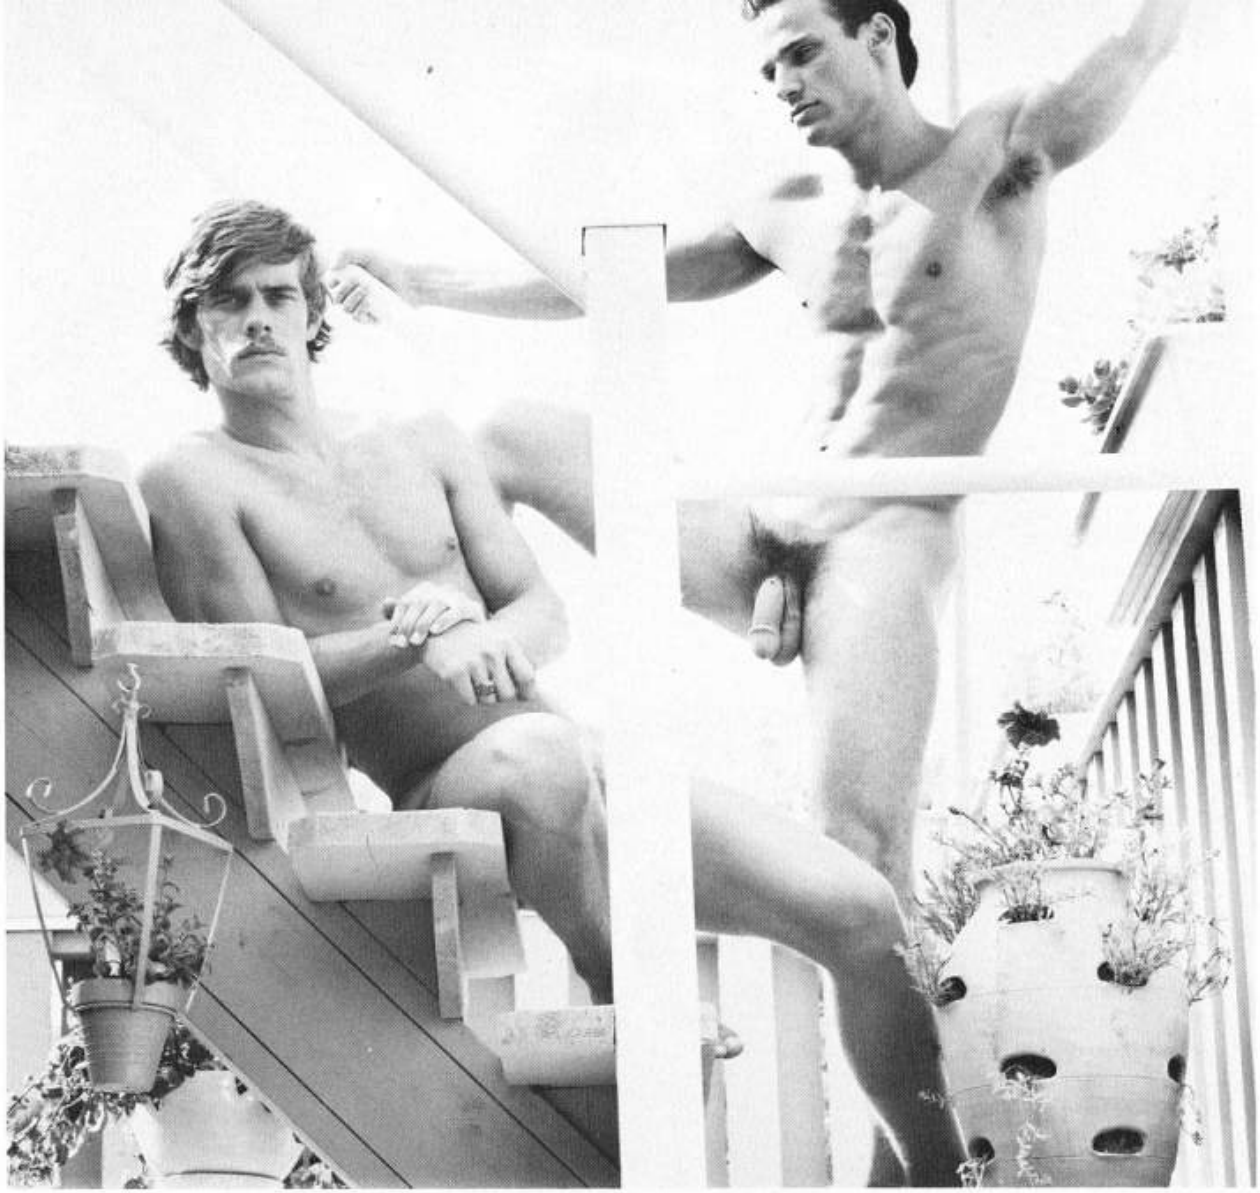
A somewhat intense young man, Chuck personifies to us what the "today" man is all about. The jock with a brain as well as a body; restless, ambitious (he owns his own business) and concerned with political matters and human rights. He crams every minute of his life to the fullest; be it pleasure or business he's always thinking and doing. He does what he likes and says what he feels and devil take the hindmost. And that's A-okay with us.

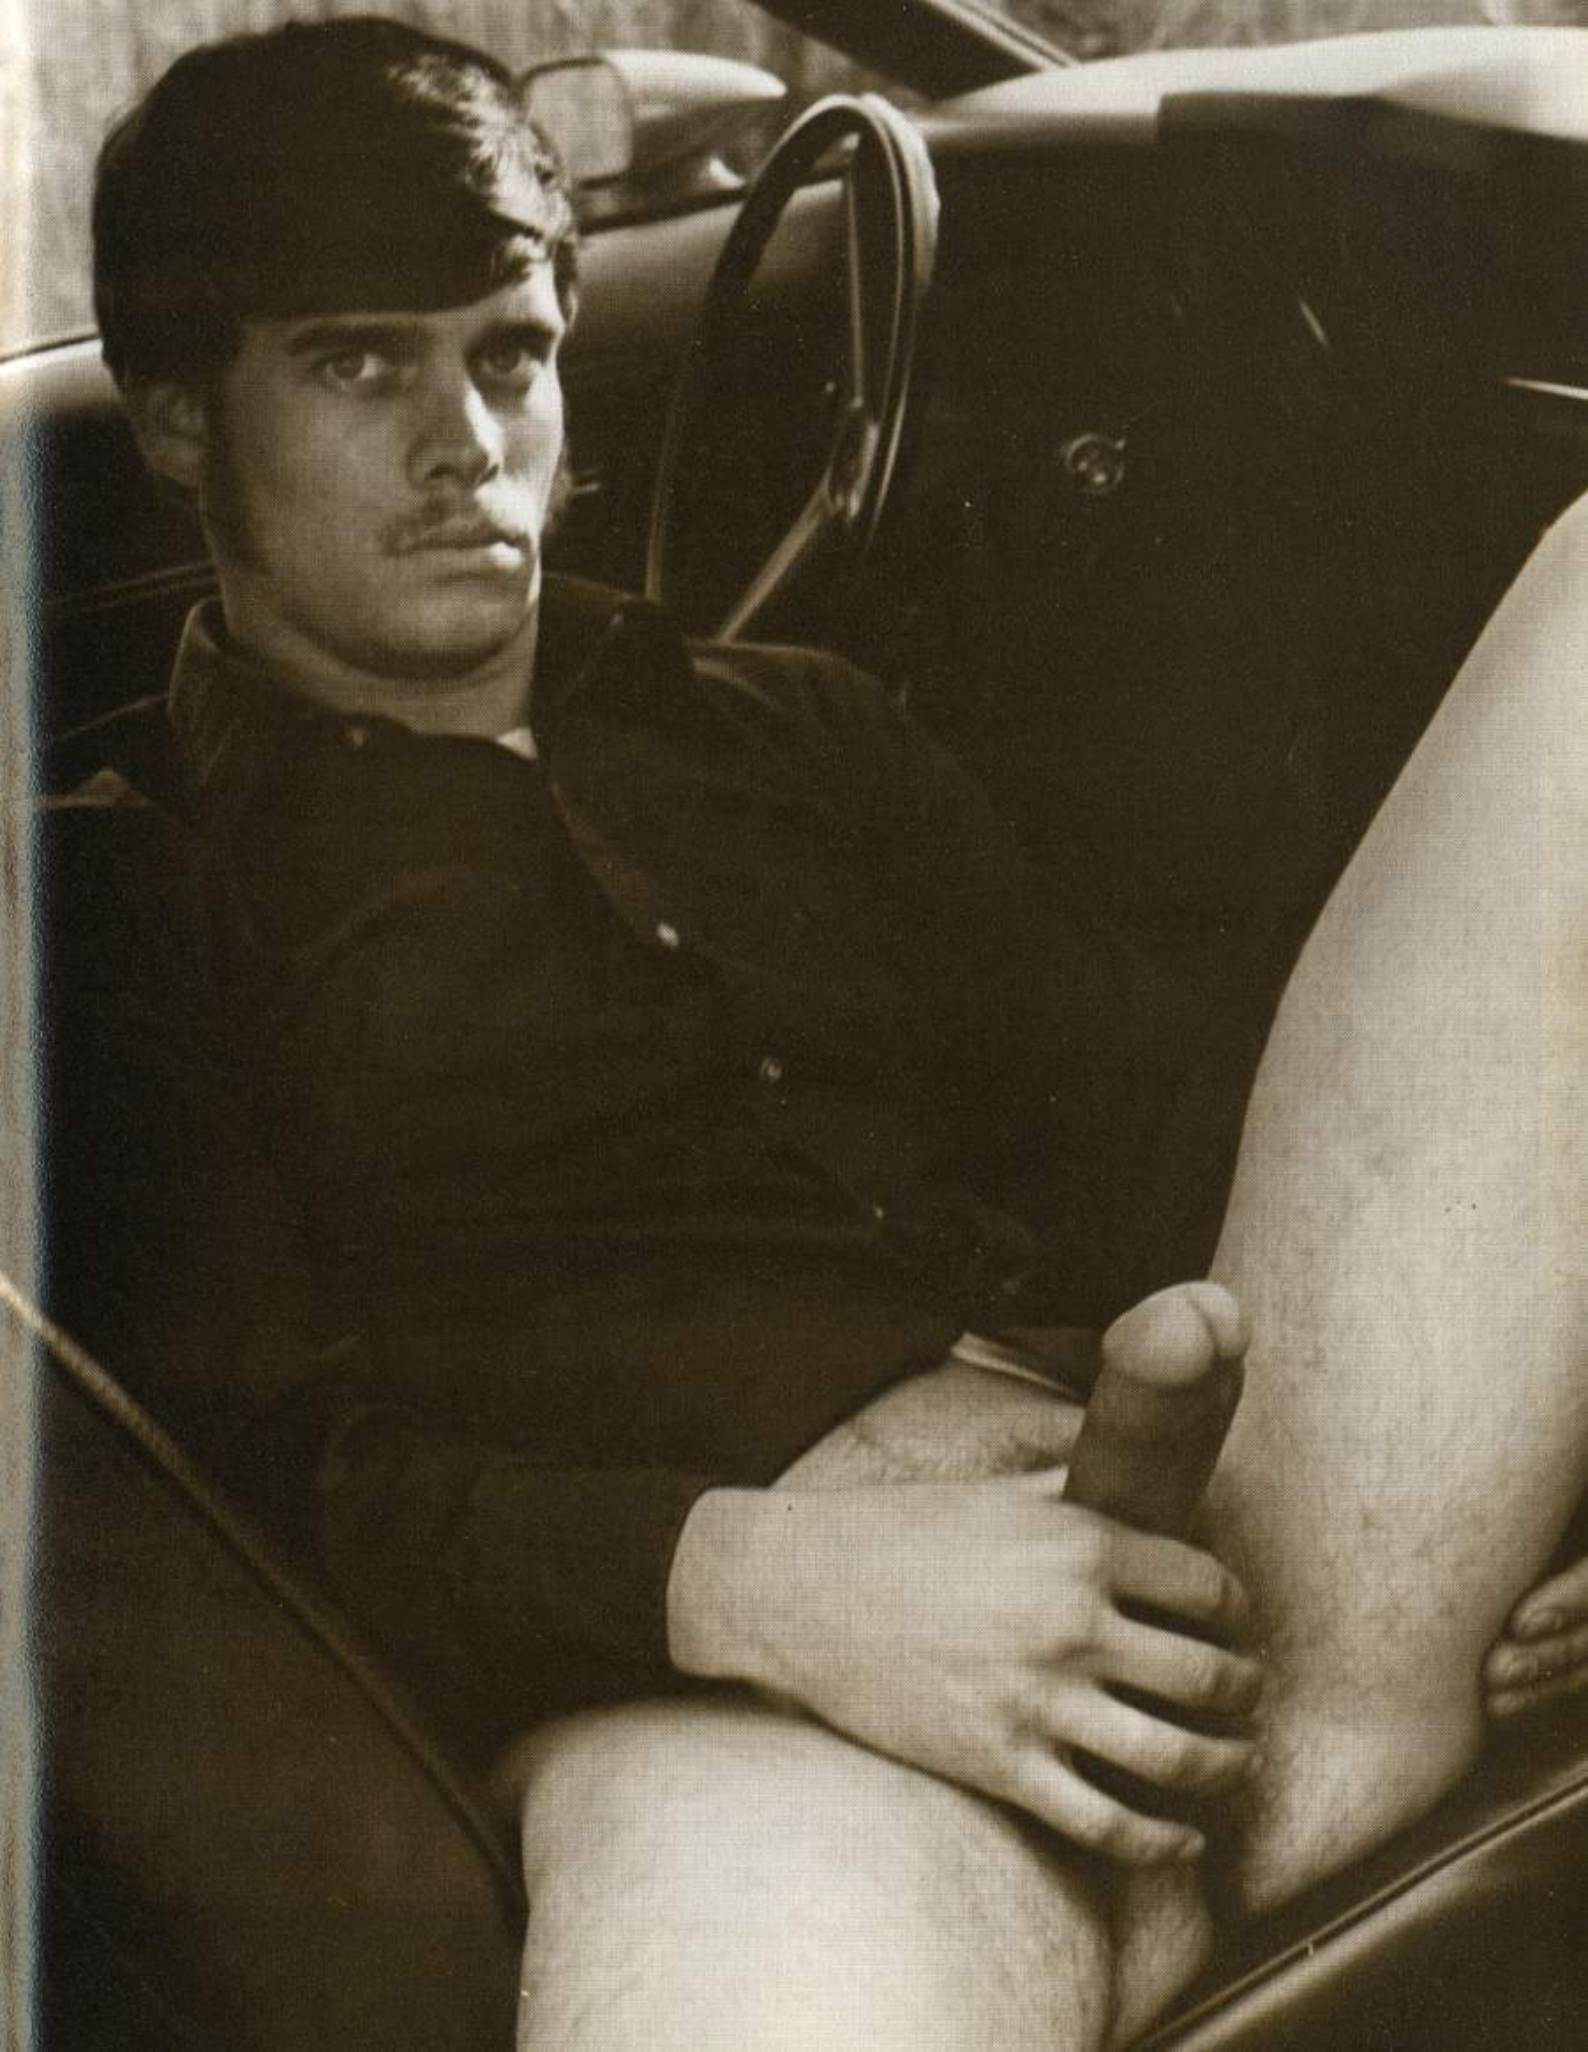
Of all the models associated with the Target image, Dak is perhaps the most typical. We introduced this sturdy lad on our very first brochure, and his popularity has continued to swell ever since. His solo film, aptly entitled "DAK," is still very much in demand, having been repeatedly acclaimed by some as the most erotic solo film ever made. Two solo photo and slide series have been released on him to date (a rare occurrence) and the second series (DAK II) is still in the catalog. And he must certainly take his share of the credit for the success of JAVELIN #2 (the Fire Island issue) in which he appears to stunning effect.

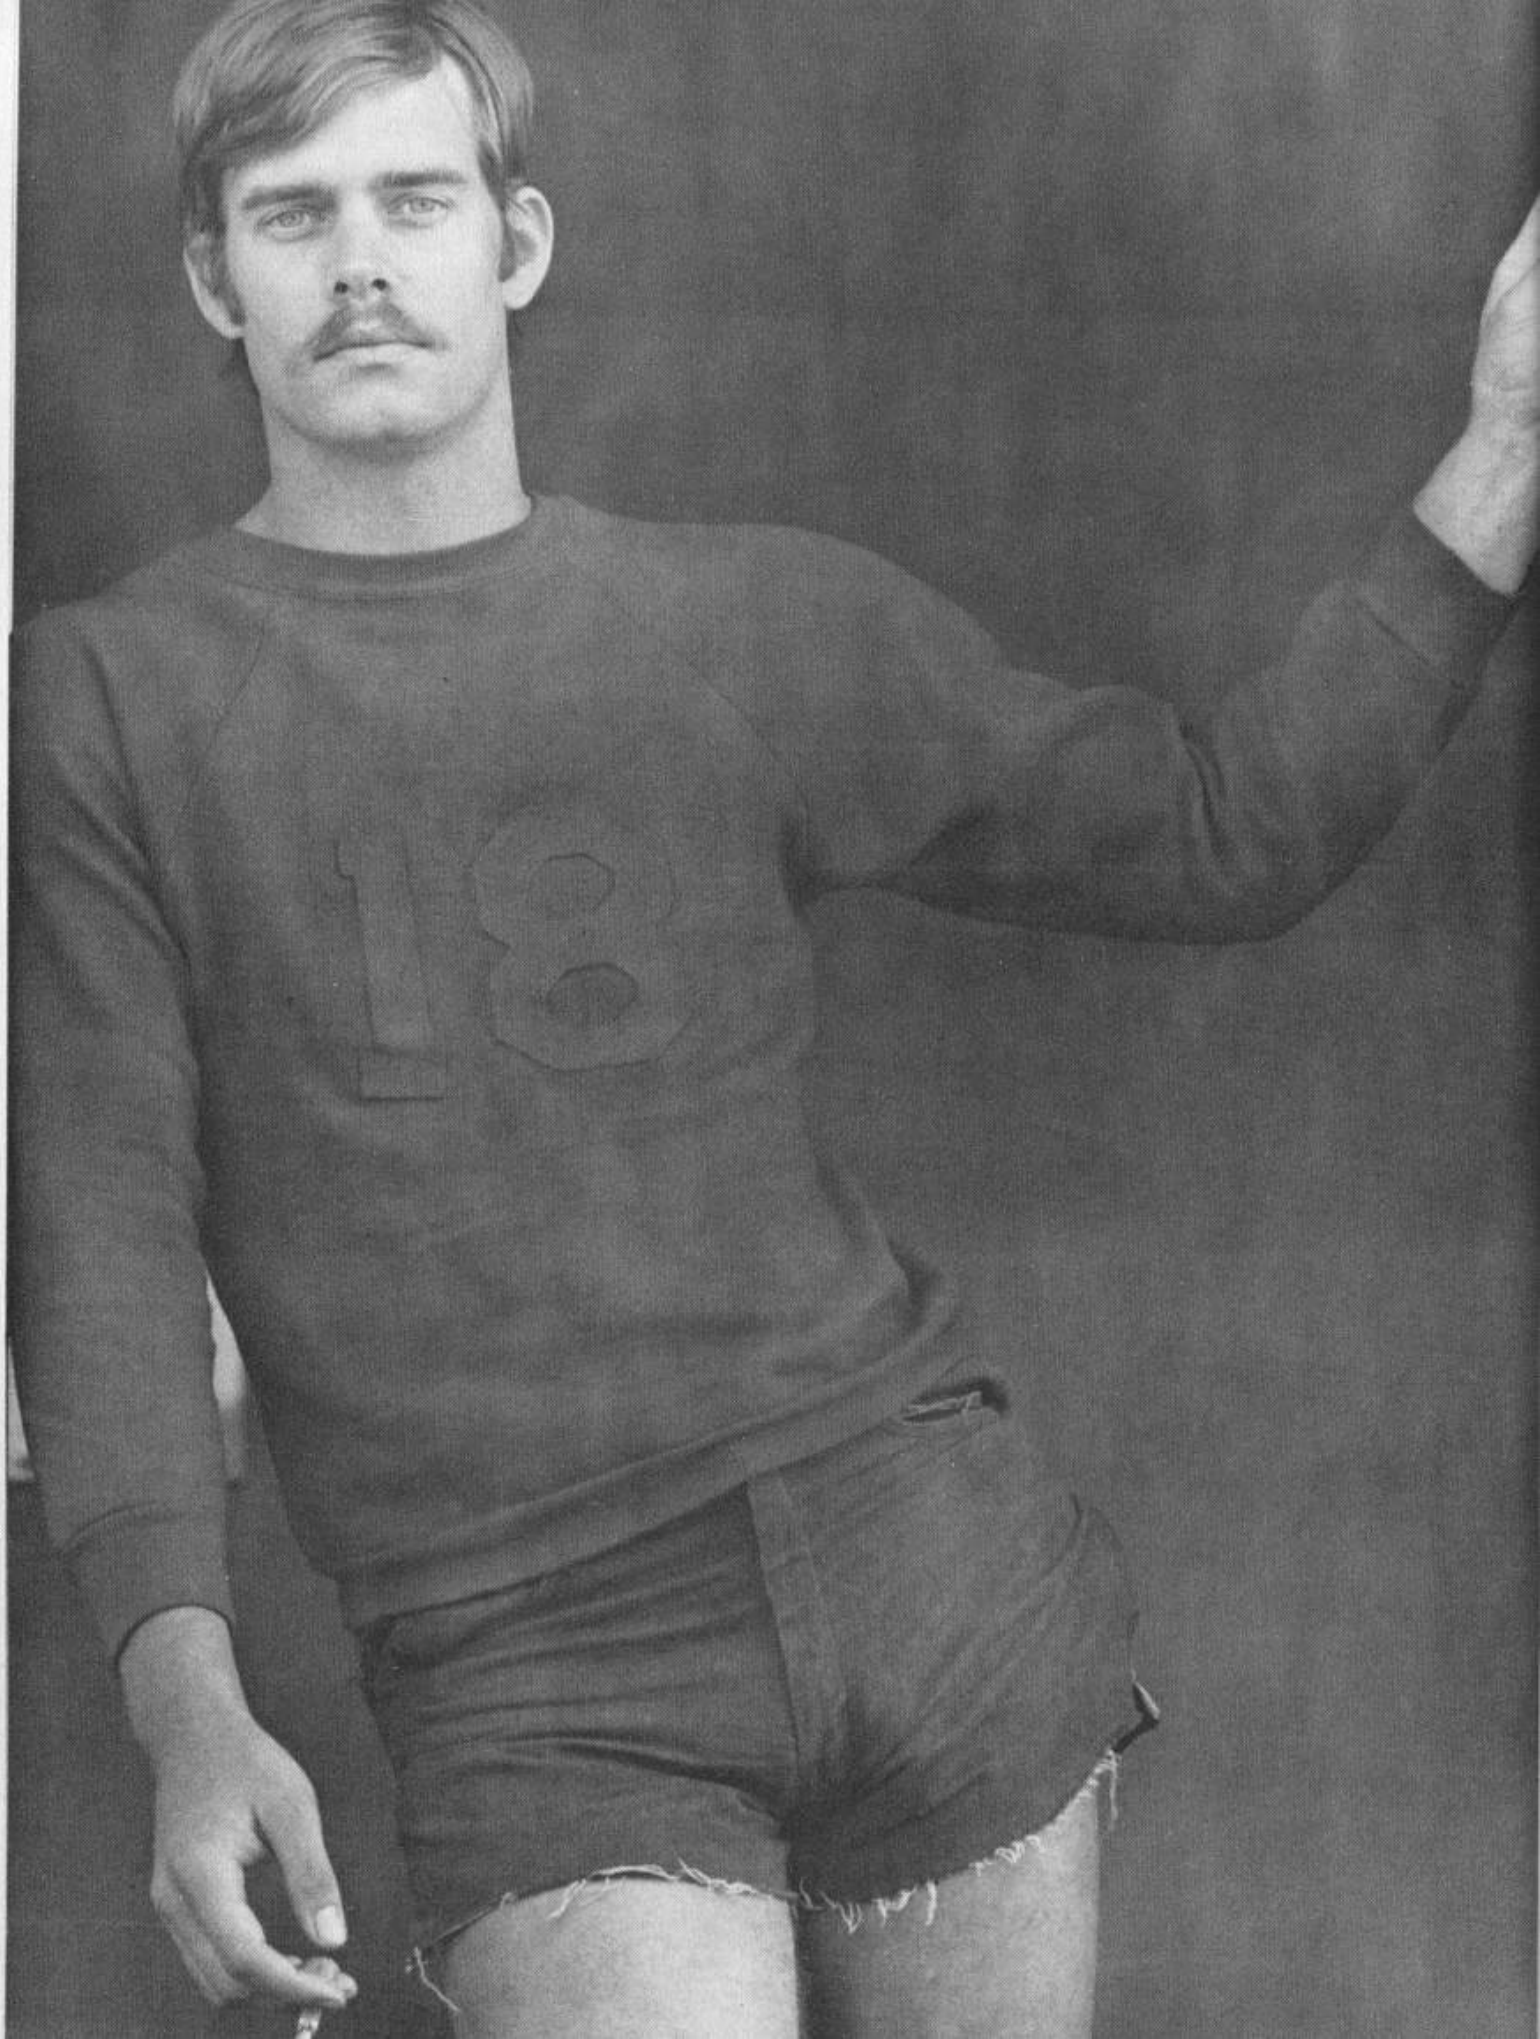


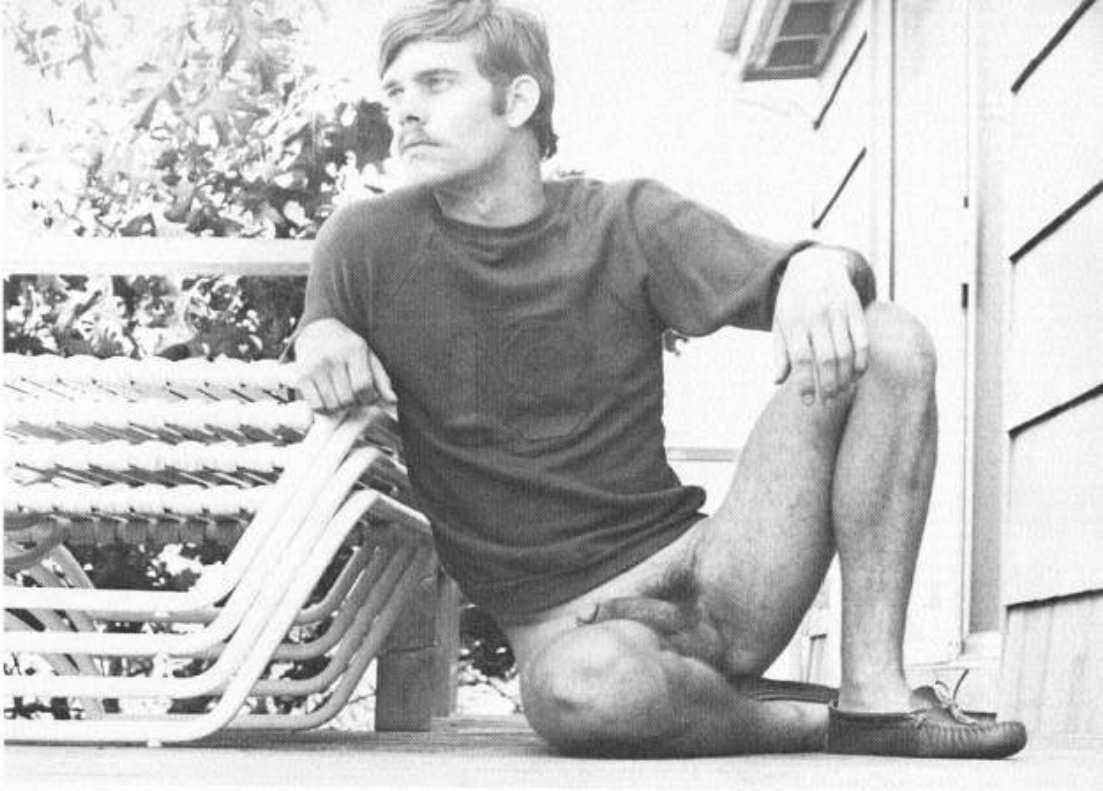


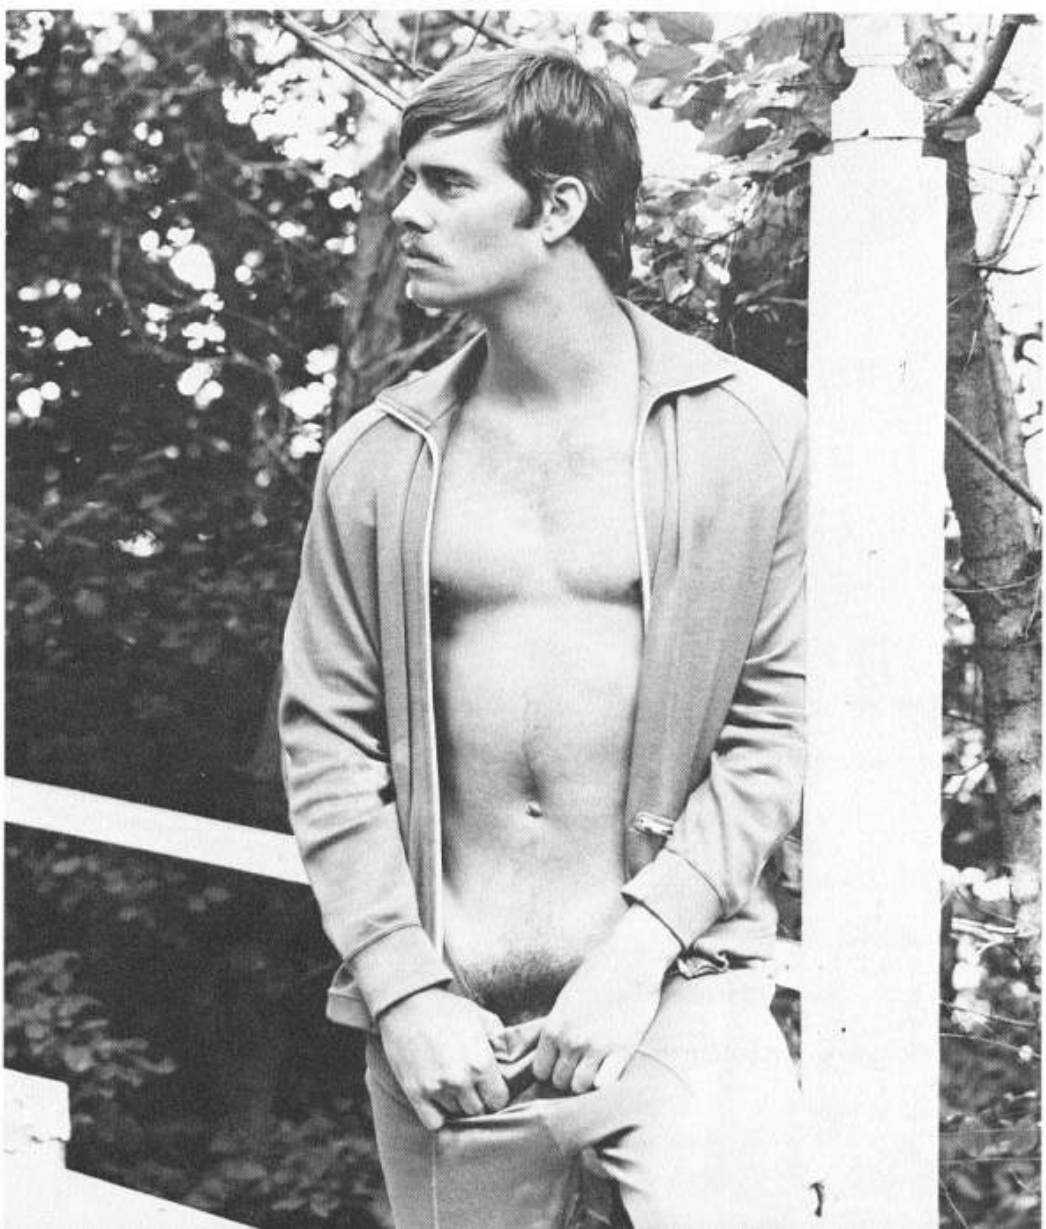
His erotic appeal has made the name Dak a household word (at least in some households!). Dry statistics cannot begin to sum up the mystical charisma of the man, but for those of you to whom these figures are important Dak stands 6 feet tall, weighs in at a muscular 165 pounds and is all of 26 years old. His brown hair bleaches to auburn in the summer sun and the color of his eyes is a summer-sky blue. The rest of his anatomy pretty much speaks for itself.

One cannot help but be impressed by his determination to make it as an actor. He has done several TV and movie stints, but dismisses these efforts with the comment: "They're nothing to brag about. In some of them, if you blink your eyes you'll miss me altogether." Be that as it may, we can't help but feel that such single-mindedness must eventually meet with some measure of success.

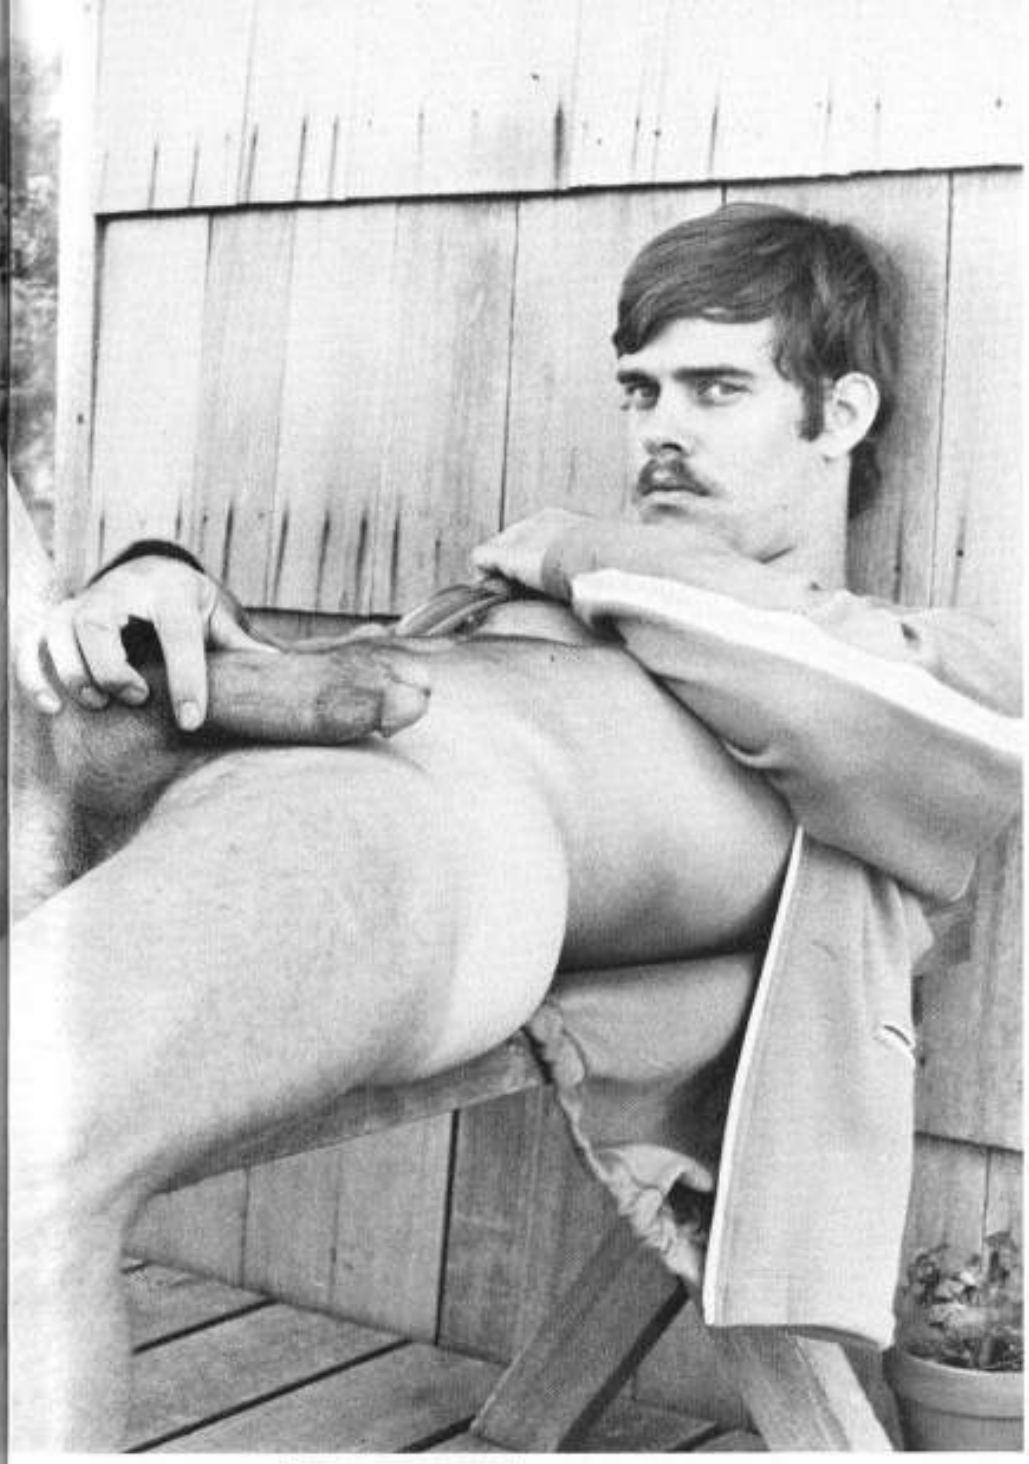








Dak is as "today" as tomorrow's headlines, readily admitting to bisexuality (together with so much of his peer group) and refreshingly free from the uptight hangups about sex that characterize preceding generations. He takes his pleasure where he finds it, preferring to freelance rather than committing himself to a single relationship. Happily, he has managed to remain level-headed in the face of the volume of gifts and mail he has received from his admirers and any display of temperament before the cameras is completely foreign to him.



The greatest accolade we can think of to pay a model is that not only has he proven to be one of your favorites, but one of ours as well. With Dak, that is most certainly the case.

Step into Target Territory

. . . and meet the grooviest men in the world!

The Target Man is something special. He possesses an aura of positive masculinity combined with a smooth, cat-like grace that adds up to an unbeatable combination of sensuous virility. Teamed with the imaginative talent of Jon Target's camera it all adds up to a dynamic package that's hard to beat.

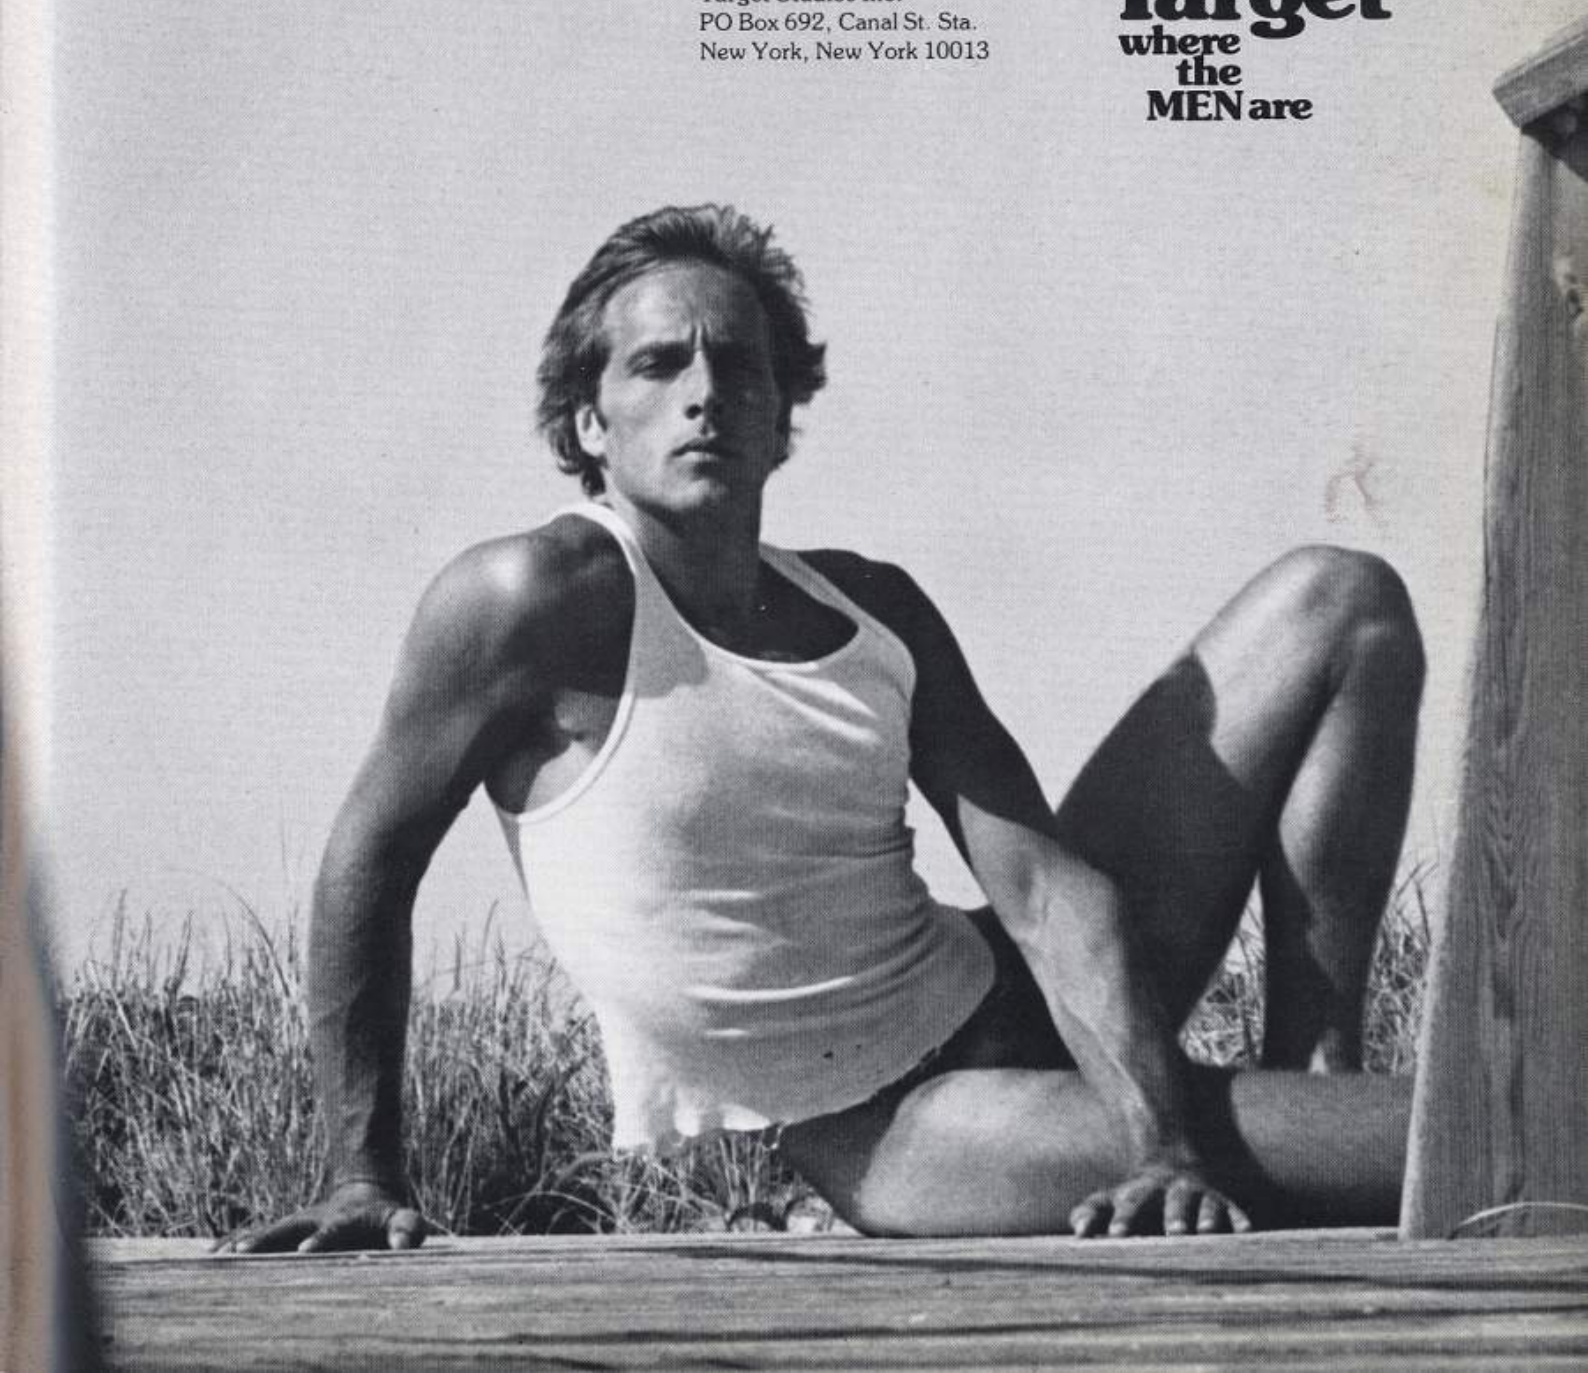
Be good to yourself. Our Targetpak consists of a sumptuous portfolio stuffed with our current brochures (including some full-color) heavily illustrating our offerings of photos, slides, magazines, movies, drawings, etc., as well as several samples. We'll ship it to you fast, via securely taped first class mail.

TARGETPAK $3.50

Please state that you are over 21.

Target Studios Inc.
PO Box 692, Canal St. Sta.
New York, New York 10013

Target
where the MEN are



A presentation of
Target Studios, Inc.
PO Box 692, Canal Street Station
New York, NY 10013